

*PROCLAMATION
City of Littleton, Colorado
Proclaiming April 22nd, 2025
"EARTH DAY"
in the City of Littleton*

WHEREAS, this year marks the 55th anniversary of the Earth Day movement with a theme of "Our Power, Our Planet," and is celebrated in 193 countries; and,

WHEREAS, the global community faces challenges such as health issues, loss of biodiversity, food and water shortages, pollution, deforestation, and economic struggles; and,

WHEREAS, all people, regardless of race, gender, income, or geography, have a right to a healthy, sustainable environment with economic growth and opportunity; and,

WHEREAS, it is understood that sustainability will only be achieved by meeting the needs of the present without compromising the needs of future generations and,

WHEREAS, it is more important than ever to cooperate locally and internationally to defend the environmental progress that has been heretofore gained, and,

WHEREAS, the Environmental Stewardship Board is a voluntary citizen advisory board who shares a passion for protecting the environment and is engaged in advancing sustainability within the organization; and,

WHEREAS, the City of Littleton commits to this global movement and pushing the needle at the local level to make an impact globally; and,

WHEREAS, Earth Day is an annual reminder of the constant need for environmental activism, stewardship commitments, and sustainability efforts.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kyle Schlachter, Mayor of the City of Littleton, do hereby proclaim April 22nd, 2025, as "EARTH DAY" and encourage all businesses, institutions, and individuals to celebrate the Earth and commit to caring for the planet and promote the protection of our species.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the City of Littleton to be affixed this 15th day of April 2025.

Kyle Schlachter, Mayor

Colleen L. Norton, City Clerk
