

Nancy A. Hopf

August 26, 2015

Hon. Nancy A. Hopf has been employed by the Judicial Arbiter Group since April 2011, providing mediation, arbitration, appointed judge, and special master services. She is also the presiding municipal judge for the City of Glendale and substitute municipal judge for Greenwood Village. She served on the district court bench in the Eighteenth Judicial District from 2003 until 2011, where she handled a caseload of civil, criminal, juvenile and domestic matters. Judge Hopf served as an administrative law judge from 1991 until she joined the district court bench, hearing primarily professional licensing, social services, Fair Campaign Practices Act and workers' compensation cases, as well as conducting mediations. Judge Hopf's prior experience also includes general civil practice and the office of the Colorado Attorney General. She earned her undergraduate degree from Northwestern University and her Juris Doctor from the University of Denver College of Law.

She is a member of the C.B.A., the Colorado Women's Bar Association, the Douglas Elbert Bar Association and the Arapahoe County Bar Association, having served on committees for all four associations as well as having been president of the A.C.B.A.
