Andrea Mimnaugh did the presentation for the Safeway Oakbrook Planned Development Plan.

After Ms. Mimnaugh's presentation, Chair Elrod opened the floor to Board members' questions.

Jan Dickinson, Planning Manager, explained the code requirements of a PD-C.

George Swintz, Owner's Representative, did the presentation for the applicant. He introduced two additional members of his team, Steve Elken, operator of the project and Keven Karis, architect from LLC.

After Mr. Swintz' presentation, he answered questions that the Board members had.

Chair Elrod opened up the public hearing at 8:19 p.m.

Eric S. McGlone informed the Board members that he and three other members of the public had "ceded" their time and delegated David Clinger to speak on their behalf. Chair Elrod stated that she had been informed of this request and that Mr. Clinger was permitted to speak for fifteen (15) minutes. Mr. Clinger made a presentation regarding the height of the proposed structure and its impact on views; and the legality of amending the PD.

The following members of the public were not in favor of the project:

Mr. Van Nimwegen stated that he believed that it was the Board's intent to discuss both urban renewal areas and hear public testimony on both urban renewal areas but the Board would take separate action on each urban renewal area plans.

Chair Elrod reiterated that Anne Rickert would do the presentation on both urban renewal areas and then it would be opened up to public comment for both of the urban renewal plans.

Prior to the Urban Renewal Presentation resuming, at 9:38 p.m., Board member Myles recused himself from the meeting due to a conflict of interest on this subject matter.

Mr. Van Nimwegen provided some background information on the LIFT Board, Planning Board and City Council's role on both of these Urban Renewal Plans. He concluded with the statement that both Urban Renewal Plans are consistent with the Comprehensive Plan.

Anne Rickert presented the information on both Urban Renewal Plans, North Broadway and Littleton Boulevard to the Planning Board members.

The Assistant Deputy City Attorney informed the Chair that a motion would need to be made to extend the meeting time per City Council's Legislative Rules.

A motion was made by Board member Bolt to continue final action after public comment. This motion was seconded by Board member Samuelson. The motion passed by the following vote:

Aye: 6 - Board Member Elrod, Board Member Bolt, Board Member Graham, Board Member Moore, Board Member Rudnicki and Board Member Samuelson

Absent: 2 - Board Member Duzan and Board Member Schroeder
