

*PROCLAMATION
City of Littleton, Colorado
Proclaiming Friday, February 20, 2026
“National Government Communicators Day” in the City of Littleton*

WHEREAS, the role of government communications professions is to inform, educate, and engage their communities; and*

WHEREAS, robust communication in government creates trust, builds shared understanding, and inspires residents to take action and be involved; and*

WHEREAS, government communications create relationships, build awareness and understanding through storytelling, empower and foster engagement on civic issues, and use all channels to include people in critical decisions; and*

WHEREAS, it is essential to have strong communicators in government because it is a foundational element of living in a democracy where citizens have the freedom to make their voices heard; and*

WHEREAS, Littleton is proud and has deep gratitude and recognition for government communicators' professionalism, dedication, hard work, commitment, and enthusiasm.*

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kyle Schlachter, Mayor of the City of Littleton, do hereby proclaim Friday, February 20, 2026 as National Government Communicators Day and encourage all residents to thank members of the Communications, Marketing, and Events Department who have dedicated their careers to ensure Littleton has effective, impactful, and successful communication strategies that are relevant and resonate with the community.*

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the City of Littleton to be affixed this 17th day of February 2026.*

Kyle Schlachter, Mayor

Colleen L. Norton, City Clerk
