- Arapahoe County (“Arapahoe County”);
- the Arapahoe County E-911 Communications Service Authority (the “911 Authority”);
- the City of Cherry Hills Village (“Cherry Hills Village”);
- the City of Englewood (“Englewood”);
- the City of Glendale (“Glendale”);
- the City of Greenwood Village (“Greenwood Village”);
- the City of Littleton (“Littleton”); and
- the City of Sheridan (“Sheridan”).

RECITALS

- A. With the exception of the 911 Authority, each of the Parties operates a law enforcement agency.
- B. Arapahoe County, Englewood, Glendale, Greenwood Village, and Littleton each operate a public safety answering point (a “PSAP”). Each of these PSAPs provides 9-1-1 call taking and law enforcement dispatching services. The Arapahoe County PSAP also provides services to Cherry Hills Village and Sheridan.
- C. The PSAPs provide dispatching services using computer aided dispatch (“CAD”). In order to save costs and increase interoperability among the Parties’ law enforcement agencies, several of the Parties desire to select, design, purchase, and use a single, consolidated CAD (including all hardware and software associated therewith, the “Consolidated CAD”) to be hosted and operated by Arapahoe County pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.
- D. The 911 Authority is authorized to collect the emergency telephone charge and to spend the same on qualifying expenditures, all pursuant to C.R.S. §§ 29-11-101 et seq. The 911 Authority provides financial assistance to the PSAPs. The 911 Authority will pay for a portion of the Consolidated CAD pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.
