Dear Mr. Delahaye,

I am writing in support of the nomination for the Littleton Post Office to be included on the National Register of Historic Places.

As a City Council member representing this esteemed building and the surrounding community, I can attest that the community values and cherishes the Post Office's role as a cornerstone of Littleton's culture, architecture, and history. Littleton's Post Office reminds Littletonians and visitors alike of the history and regional importance of our community. Few places exhibit this characteristic other than our city's downtown Post Office.

The Littleton Post Office was built in the Colonial Revival Style in 1939, and it is past time we recognize, designate, and protect the Post Office's remarkable history and architecture. Having the Post Office designated on the National Register of Historic Places would of great benefit to the adjacent Historic Downtown Littleton. This charming Main Street is lined with turn-of-the-century buildings that house some of the Denver metro area's unique retail shops and top restaurants. Tens of thousands of residents and visitors alike flock to downtown Littleton for various events.

Thank you for your attention to this request and for your commitment to recognizing and preserving our city's history.

Sincerely,

Kyle Schlachter

Littleton City Council at-large representative
