

Boards and Commissions
In-Person Meetings
Updated July 14, 2021

Most boards have returned to in person meetings, with Planning Commission and the Next Generation Advisory Committee (NGAC) slated for July, Historical Preservation for August (their chair's request), and Licensing Authority, Building Board or Appeals, and Board of Adjustment TBD.

Boards currently meeting in person are:

- Arts and Culture Commission - 2nd Thursday of the month (at the museum)
- Fine Arts Board - 3rd Thursday of the month (at the museum)
- TMB - 4th Thursday of the month (currently in council chamber)
- NGAC - 1st Thursday of the month (plans to bring them back in August. Some discussion that sub-committees may be virtual; location TBD - possibly museum)
- Planning Commission - 2nd and 4th Monday of the month; return to in-person planned for July 12
- Historical Preservation Board - 3rd Monday of the month; return to in-person Monday, July 19
- Licensing Authority - 2nd Wednesday of the month; return to in-person planned for August 11
- Building Board of Appeals - 3rd Wednesday of the month; return to in-person when there is business to be heard
- Board of Adjustment - 3rd Thursday of the month; return to in-person when there is business, tentatively scheduled for August
- Election Commission - as necessary; one meeting to be scheduled for late July before county IGAs go to council. Will meet in person mid-day at the Littleton Center
