SUMMARY:

Envision Littleton was developed to be a multi-year and multi-milestone commitment to planning for the next 20 years of the city. The top priority identified in the Comprehensive Plan is to update the city’s regulatory framework and transition to a ULUC.

The ULUC is the framework that will guide land use and zoning for the next decades. Since the inception of Envision Littleton, the long term goal was to transform the 1976 code to a new structure and adopt a methodology for land use and zoning that is clear, simple, and focuses on quality by showing what the city wants instead of what is prohibited. This new structure will allow the City to take a more active approach to absorb new practices and procedures and ensure a living “document.”

In the Comprehensive Plan, Action H&N 11 identified the need to evaluate best practices for regulating accessory dwelling units and short-term rentals, and parameters to prevent adverse neighborhood effects.

KKC has delivered a draft ULUC that includes definitions for ADUs and a possible approach to recognizing the on-the-ground realities found in Littleton by introducing general standards and standards by ADU type. KKC has also suggested which zone districts would allow ADUs approved subject to standards, conditional subject to standards, and in some cases permitted with alley access only.

This discussion will seek Council direction on how ADUs are approached in the draft.
